MASS MEETING WELL ATTENDED

Wednesday Night's Demonstration at Temple Theatre

MEETING'S HELD AT MORTONS GAP

County Attorney Announces His Opposition to Licenses

"I most certainly am against the issuance of the licenses to sell liquor at Oak Hill and Mannington and I shall vigorously oppose them when the applications come up in County Court next Monday. To grant license to operate saloons in these places, without police protection, would be a serious mistake and I am certainly against it"—County Attorney, G. W. Sybert

The temperance mass meeting at Temple Theatre Wednesday night was well attended and the proceedings evinced a very live interest in the question of the continued future banishment of the saloon and the liquor house of every description from Hopkins County. Mayor D. M. Evans was chairman and the speeches arranged by the program committee, Dr. A. O. Sisk, F. B. Arnold, Rev. J. M. Burden, Rev. W. M. Ragan, and Paul M. Moore, were all made as announced in Tuesday's BEE. The invocation was by Rev. Ragan. Ten minute speeches were made by Rev. Grant, Rev. Brazelton, Rev. Burden, Prof. Dudley and W. A. Toombs, in the order named. Mr. Toombs' remarks and indulged in the humorous vein in the closing talk of the evening and elicited much laughter and applause. He could not reconcile with his system of philosophy the alleged necessity for the establishment of a "Tavern" at Mannington, and said he could not understand why any traveler should want to stay all night at Mannington any way unless he had a quart of mean liquor on his inside and was unable to walk out of the place. All the speakers were liberally applauded. A company of singers from the several churches were on the stage and rendered appropriate inspirational songs. Klub Kentucky Band furnished life and enthusiasm in the excellent rendition of several selections, winding up with a jubilant air that put notions into the feet of those present and made everybody feel that the fight was won.

Frank B. Arnold told the meeting of the progress made in securing signatures to the remonstrance against the Oak Hill license in that neighborhood, which indicated that the number would be great enough to overcome the signatures that had been put upon the petition which asked for the license at that place.

The committee on resolutions, composed of Prof. C. E. Dudley, Frank D. Rash, J. E. Evans and Dempsey Sharp, presented the following resolutions, which were adopted by a unanimous rising vote:

WHEREAS, It has been reported that application has been made to the County Court of Hopkins County for license to operate a liquor saloon at or near Oak Hill, and that application has also been made for license for a saloon at a point further south, and near the Christian county line, and

WHEREAS, The proposed saloon site at Oak Hill is said to be within a short distance of the PUBLIC SCHOOL at that place, and

WHEREAS, The good County of Hopkins has not a single saloon within its borders. We believe that it is sufficient evidenced that the good citizenship condemn any action that would bring this demoralizing agency back in our midst, and

WHEREAS, The opening of saloons in any part of the county, especially in parts without police protection, would disturb the peace and moral status now existing in the County,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, By the Citizens of Earlington in Mass Meeting assembled on Wednesday night Oct. 29th, 1913, that we petition and urge His Honor, Judge Bradley, to refuse, not only these applications, but any and all such petitions as may be hereafter presented to him.

F. D. Rash,
Ellsworth Evans,
C. E. Dudley,
Committee.

The people of Mortons Gap, both white and colored, also held temperance mass meeting at that place Wednesday night and at both meetings petitions in remonstrance against the proposed issue of liquor licenses were passed with enthusiasm.

Mortons Gap Christian Sunday School

Whereas, it is reported that application has been made to the county judge of Hopkins County for license to open and operate saloons at Oak Hill and Mannington, and

Whereas the opening of saloons in any portion of the county, especially in parts without police protection, would disturb the peace and moral status now existing in the county;

Therefore be it Resolved, By the Sunday school of the Christian church of Mortons Gap, in session assembled on Sunday, Oct. 26, 1913, that we petition His Honor, Judge Bradley, and urge him to refuse not only these applications, but any and all such applications as may hereafter be presented to him.

Respectfully submitted,
G. L. CARRIER, Supt.
JENKINS HAMPTON, Sec.

MINERS LOOSE THEIR CASE AGAINST I. C.

Sued for Damages Because Railroad Failed to Furnish Cars to Move Coal.

Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 30.—In an opinion by Judge Carroll, the appellate court reversed the Mublenberg circuit court in the action of the Illinois Central vs. John B. Baker, who, with a number of other coal miners, sued in the quarterly court for damages resulting from being laid off, owing to the failure of the railroad to furnish cars for the transportation of coal. The railroad asked an injunction to prevent the case from being tried by quarterly court, but a demurrer to the petition was sustained by the circuit court, it was alleged by railroads that Milton Clark, Robert Hardison, O. Denny and Walter Wilkins, attorneys, had conspired with 1,600 miners to bring suits. In reversing the case, Judge Carroll, holds that a distinction should be observed between valid and groundless claims and when that large a number of cases arising out of the same transaction, and resting on one common ground are instituted against one defendant especially where one of the plaintiffs has legally a meritorious or enforceable demand against the defendant, the jurisdiction of the court of equity may be invoked to save expense of defending separate cases. The opinion holds that in the present cases the miners had not legally a meritorious or enforceable case.

Vote YES on Constitutional Amendment No. 2, next Tuesday. It will tax bonds and stocks and other values that now escape taxation. All political parties endorse the proposed amendment.

THICK GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girl's Beauty Your Hair Make it Soft, Fluffy and Luxuriant—Try the Moist Cloth.

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really now hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediately amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all.

School Fair at Armory, Dec. 5, 1913.

I wish to speak to the public, especially the business men and merchants, regarding our School Fair.

This is not to be a money making scheme, in any sense of the word, but is given that we may advance the cause of education, in Earlington, and in its immediate surroundings. We expect to have in Earlington on that day a good crowd of out of town people. This ought to make it a good business day for merchants. For this reason we are expecting our home people to offer liberal premiums, as Earlington alone will receive the benefit of the business.

I hope other things may be one of the way in order that all may center interests around the school and the fair. We will try to make the fair as good as any, and by this means inspire our citizens to greater educational endeavor. Let the citizens of Earlington, please give the school their cooperation and support in this matter.

Supt.

Women Subject To Kidney Trouble

I beg to say that I have been a constant sufferer with severe pains in my back and was on the verge of nervous prostration resulting from kidney trouble and other complications. A friend of mine recommended Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root as a sure cure for these troubles. Acting upon her advice I began taking Swamp-Root and began to improve before I had finished the first bottle. I continued its use until I had taken several bottles and continued to improve until I was completely cured. I am happy to say that I am as well as any woman on earth and have been so for the past nine years, thanks to Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and I cheerfully recommend it to all who suffer from kidney trouble.

Very Truly yours,

Practical Ventilating Hint.
The house should be ventilated in winter as well as in summer if the family is to be kept in good health. Bedrooms, especially, should be provided with a free circulation of fresh air. One way to get fresh air in a bedroom without having a draft is to tack strips of cheesecloth across the top and the bottom of the window so that when it is opened in both places the fresh air will enter the room and yet, should there be a strong wind, the force will be broken by the cloth.

Women Who Get Dizzy
Every woman who is troubled with fainting and dizzy spells, backache, headache, weakness, debility, constipation or kidney troubles should use Electric Bitters. They give relief and nothing else will improve the health, adding strength and vigor from the first dose. Mrs. Laura Galus, of Avoca, La., says: "Four Doctors had given me up and my children and all my friends were looking for me to die, when my son insisted that I use Electric Bitters. I did so, and they have done me a world of good." Just try them 50c. and $1.00 at all druggists or by mail, M. E. Bucklin & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis.

Met Peculiar Death.
A case in which three bluejackets were killed by fumes from potatoes was described in the recent annual report on the health of the British navy. The men were overcome in a provision room in the Superb, where there was a stock of potatoes. Some of the potatoes were germinating, and this gave rise to an accumulation of gas, which suffocated the men.

A Marvelous Escape
"My little boy had a marvelous escape," writes P. F. Bastians, of Effrice Albert, Cape of Good Hope. "It occurred in the middle of the night. He got a very severe attack of croup. As luck would have it, I had a large bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house. After following the directions for an hour and twenty minutes he was through all danger." Took Mother Literally.
"Marian pointed to the glass or cup when she wished a drink, uttering inarticulate sounds intended to convey her desire. She was old enough to talk some, but she had never been taught to ask for a drink. Mother said to her: 'When you want a drink, Marian, you say, 'Mamma, or papa, or Hazel, or Mildred, drink.' The next time Marian wished a drink she pointed to the cup and said: 'Mamma, papa, Hazel, Mildred, drink-ink-ink-ink!'"

At the child starts in its sleep, turns its head while sleeping, picks at the nose, has a bad breath, fickle appetite, pale complexion, and dark rings under the eyes; it has worms, and as long as they remain in the intestines, that child will be sickly. WORMS' CREAM VERMIFUGE cleans out the worms, strengthens the stomach and bowels and puts the little one on the road to health and cheerfulness. But He Wouldn't Get Up.
There was not even standing room in the crowded electric car, but one more passenger, a young woman, wedged her way along just inside the doorway. Each time the car took a sudden lurch forward she fell helplessly back, and three times she landed in the arms of a large, comfortable man. The third time it happened he said quietly: "Haven't you better stay there?"—Exchange.

IS KENTUCKY IN NEED OF THE TAX REFORM?

What Happened in "THE COW COUNTIES" in California and Why "THE DOG TAX COUNTIES" in Kentucky Should Emulate Their Example

Until a few years ago the State of California was suffering under the same system of taxation which prevails in Kentucky although many efforts had been made to change it.

The average citizen is opposed to innovations as a general proposition and while the state suffered and the burden of taxation fell heavily on the small property owner, as it does in Kentucky, it was hard to arouse the people and capitalistic classes managed to keep the old law in effect and went on hiding their personal property and escaping taxation, as they do in Kentucky.

"Why is this man working so hard?"
"To get more land to pay MORE taxes."

A simple careless expression in a San Francisco newspaper caused a revolution of feeling and brought about the change which all Californians are now proud of.

The newspaper referred to printed an article to the effect that the same old Constitutional Amendment would be voted on at the November election and added facetiously that "the Cow Counties" would probably vote for it, and treated it as a joke.

The newspaper evidently underestimated the power of "the Cow Counties" as this little attempt at witicism made "the Cow Counties" sit up and take notice.

The people in "the Cow Counties" commenced to ask themselves: Why is it that farm lands and town property pay the bulk of taxes? Why are the owners of stocks, bonds, notes and other personal property able to get off scott free?

Have we a uniform system of taxation in practice as well as in name? And such like questions.

Well, the result was "the Cow Counties" in California determined to throw off the yoke and the amendment was overwhelmingly carried.

"Why is this man working so hard?"
"To hide his property and pay NO taxes."

The same conditions exist in Kentucky to-day and the same opportunity for a change presents itself and it is time for "the Cow Counties" in Kentucky to show their power and force a fair division of taxation.

By subjecting the millions of dollars of personal property to the payment of taxes, farms and town lots would be relieved as in other states with modern tax laws. In Pennsylvania there is no state tax on farm lands and town lots because the revenue from stocks, bonds and notes is sufficient for the purpose.

The dog tax in Kentucky produced more revenue in 1912 ($127,651) than all the taxes from bonds ($32,425), cash in banks ($64,240), and stocks in corporations ($14,000); total $110,665, while farm lands and town lots and improvements paid $3,177,360.

"The Dog Tax" Counties in Kentucky are in the same fix as "the Cow Counties" were in California and it is high time to quit barking and commence biting. A vote for the tax amendment at the November election will make the other fellow do some howling, if "the Dog Tax" counties will only do their duty and vote for the amendment and enable the legislature to frame laws to make all classes of property pay their legitimate share of taxation.

Extract From Report of State Tax Commission.

"We recommend, that the proposed Constitutional Amendment should be adopted by the voters of the state.

"This Amendment has been carefully drawn, its provisions are clear and plain.

"It follows precedents which have been tried and proved successful in other states.

"It authorizes practical changes, which, in our judgment, if adopted, will increase revenue, remove restrictions now handicapping valuable enterprises, and place Kentucky upon a fair plane with other states which have shown marked progress and prosperity, as a result of sane and sound revenue laws.

"It provides that any and all changes made thereunder in our tax laws up to 1917 must be approved by the people themselves after passage by the legislature and their approval may be made a condition after that time, so that the whole matter rests in the hands of the people.

"We consider the amendment necessary in order to enable the legislature to take the initiative in any effective revision of the revenue laws of the state, which have been condemned by the then State Tax Commissions and criticised annually by the State Equalization Board.

VACCINATION AGAINST HOG CHOLERA IS NECESSARY IN KENTUCKY

There Are Three Accepted Methods of Immunizing Hogs—Practical Methods of Destroying Carcass—Law Compels Owners to Burn or Bury Hogs That Die From Cholera

(By Robert Graham, D. V. M., Department of Animal Husbandry, Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station.)

Serum is used in a herd of hogs, unless the shade and hog houses are properly disinfected the germs of hog cholera will remain, and thus the infection will be scattered through the surrounding country. One of the best methods of disinfection is by the use of a strong spray pump. All fifth and litter should be cleaned away from the house and pens before the disinfectant is used. A five per cent solution of carbolic acid in water is effective in killing cholera germs.

A great many cholera carcasses are left exposed and the buzzards and dogs scatter the infection throughout the country. A law compelling owners to burn or bury all hogs that die from hog cholera is as follows:

"Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

"1. That in all cases where any pig, shoat or hog shall die of the disease commonly called 'hog cholera,' or any other disease, it shall be the duty of the owner or owners of such pig, shoat or hog, or the person or persons having the care or custody of the same having knowledge of the fact or upon receiving notice thereof, to cause the carcass of same to be burned within twelve hours or securely buried two and one-half feet deep.

"2. Any person or persons failing and refusing to comply with the above provisions shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon the conviction thereof shall be fined in a sum not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars.

"Approved by the Governor, March 14, 1912."

Practical method of destroying a carcass.

During the outbreak of cholera, some farmers pay little attention to this law, and as none of their neighbors complain to the proper authorities, the law is not enforced. Hogs which die from cholera and are allowed to remain on the ground, will infect a whole community. The above law should be complied with, in order to protect the interests of others.

Burying is the best method of destroying cholera carcasses. Two trenches, 18 inches wide, should be dug so that they intersect at right angles. Across the intersection, place iron bars to support the carcass, and wood can be fired in the trench beneath the carcass. To facilitate the destruction of the carcass, coal oil can be poured into the abdominal cavities of the carcasses. This method is much preferred to burying, for there is always danger that the carcass will be removed and brought to the ground surface. When hogs that die from cholera are buried on a farm, there is constant danger of an outbreak of the disease for years after. The great loss from hog cholera in this state will not be checked until these precautions are observed.

CARE OF FARM MACHINERY.

(T. R. Bryant, Superintendent Extension Department, Kentucky Agricultural College.)

The money invested in implements and machinery on the average farm is a large item in the business, but it is astonishing how little attention is paid to its care. Plows are often left in the last furrow or beside it, binders and mowers are left under a tree for months at a time and the consequence is poor service, heavy draft and short life of the machine. For example, we would at least expect a binder to cut 1,000 acres of wheat without actually wearing out, if we had time to do it at one job, and yet the farmer who raises a 50 acre wheat crop rarely uses a binder 20 years. Its life should in reality be much greater. The same rule holds good for other implements.

The lesson to be learned is that machinery rusts out or becomes unsatisfactory more from neglect than from use. A good shed should be provided and all implements should be carefully cleaned, working parts greased and the machine stored after each period of use. During the winter or other convenient time all implements should be gone over and put in perfect repair to avoid vexation when they are to be used again.

Proper attention to such matters will stop a serious financial drain upon the farm and will prevent much worry.

There are three methods of immunizing hogs—the Serum-alone Method, the Serum-simultaneous Method, and the Combination Method.

The Serum-alone Method, as the name implies, consists in injecting only serum into the animal. This is usually injected into the thigh of the hog, or into the neck. This method will protect hogs from taking the disease for a period of from three weeks to three months. The average duration of immunity by this method is about eight weeks. This method should be employed on healthy animals where the disease of hog cholera is already in the herd. It is advisable, also, to use this method on hogs that are kept for short feeding periods, and during extremely warm weather.

The Serum-simultaneous Method consists in injecting the proper amount of serum into one side of the neck of the hog or into one of the hams, simultaneously with a small amount of virus (blood from a hog suffering from cholera) injected into the opposite side of the body. This method of vaccination will protect hogs from the disease of hog cholera for at least six months, and usually for life. There is a certain amount of danger accompanying this method, for, if there is any infection in the herd in the incubative stage at the time of inoculation, irregular results are liable to follow. The average loss from this method is from one to two per cent. Pregnant sows should not be treated with the Simultaneous Method, if they are as far along as 80 days in pregnancy. They can, however, be given the Serum-alone Method with safety. Pregnant sows should never be thrown when being treated, but they should be held by a rope inserted in the mouth, and they should be vaccinated in the neck.

Method of vaccinating shoat and indicates points of inoculation.

The Combination Method consists in giving serum only, and in ten or twelve days revaccinating the herd with the Serum-simultaneous Method. This treatment is used by breeders of pure-bred herds, and it diminishes the small loss incident to the Serum-simultaneous Method.

After hogs have been vaccinated, they should be given dry, clean quarters in which to sleep. They should be fed a moderate amount of mill feed given in a slop, for a period of eight or ten days. Hogs should never be rung or castrated for at least 15 days after being inoculated.

The dosage of anti-hog cholera serum and virus for hogs of different size is as follows:

Serum.
10 c.c. up to 10 lbs.
15 c.c. for all sizes between 10 and 20 lbs.
20 c.c. for all sizes between 20 and 50 lbs.
30 c.c. for 75 lbs or more than 50 lbs.
40 c.c. for 100 lbs. or more than 75 lbs.
50 c.c. for 150 lbs or more than 100 lbs.
60 c.c. for 200 lbs. or more than 150 lbs.
70 c.c. for 250 lbs. or more than 200 lbs.
80 c.c. for 300 lbs. or more than 250 lbs.
90 c.c. for 400 lbs. or more than 300 lbs.
100 c.c. for more than 400 lbs.

Virus.
1/4 c.c. for pigs up to 4 weeks of age.
1/2 c.c. for pigs 4 weeks to 50 lbs.
1/2 c.c. for sizes 50 to 100 lbs.
1 c.c. for sizes 100 lbs and over.

From the above schedule of dosages, the cost of vaccinating any herd, as far as the serum and virus necessary for the inoculation is concerned, can be readily calculated. If a veterinarian is employed to do the work, his fee, of course, will have to be considered in addition to the cost of the serum and virus.

The serum treatment is the best method of combating hog cholera, but, along with this, thorough disinfection and cleanliness of the premises is essential. No matter how much

"Symptoms."
Occasionally an afflicted lady tells why she left her husband. For the married man, of course, introspection and conscience, the feeling produced by the recital is something like the feeling one used to have in reading the patent medicine list of "symptoms." He used to feel that he had 'em and deserved the treatment.

Asbestos.
Asbestos is a mineral of a fine fibrous character, the fibers being easily separated, elastic, flexible, and of a whitish-gray color. It is composed chiefly of silica, lime, magnesia, and oxide of iron. The ancients converted it into a kind of cloth, in which they wrapped the bodies of their dead, while preparing them for the funeral pile; the cloth being indestructible by fire, enabled them to preserve the ashes. Asbestos is found more abundantly in Corsica than in any other locality.

The Family Cough Medicine

In every home there should be a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, ready for immediate use when any member of the family contracts a cold or a cough. Prompt use will stop the spread of sickness. S. A. Stid, of Mason, Mich., writes: "My whole family depends upon Dr. King's New Discovery as the best cough and cold medicine in the world. Two 50c bottles cured me of pneumonia." Thousands of other families have been equally benefited and depend entirely upon Dr. King's New Discovery to cure their coughs, colds, throat and lung troubles. Every dose helps. Price 50c and $1.00. All Druggists. E. E. Becklin & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis.

True to Nature.
The tests in a primary class in penmanship were interesting anything they choose. When it was Hazel's turn, she stepped into the center of the room and wriggled her body from side to side. No one could guess what she was impersonating, so she was asked to explain. "Why," she said, "I was a little dog wagging its tail."

Eczema and Itching Cured

The soothing and healing medication in Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment penetrates every tiny pore of the skin, clears it of all impurities, stops itching instantly. Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment is guaranteed to speedily heal eczema, rashes, ringworm, tetter and other unsightly eruptions. Eczema Ointment is a doctor's prescription, not an experiment. All Druggists or by mail 50c. Pfeiffer Chemical Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis.

More Caution Needed.
An exchange tells the story of a little boy whose mother decided that he was old enough to do without her sitting by him when he was put to bed until he fell asleep. So when one night she kissed the five-year-old and told him he was a big boy and brave enough to go to sleep without his mamma and in the dark, too, he pondered the situation a moment and then said: "Well, wait a minute. I've got to say my prayers again careful—Suburban Life."

When the chest feels on fire and the throat burns, you have indigestion, and you need HERBINE to get rid of the disagreeable feeling. It drives out badly digested food, strengthens the stomach and purifies the bowels. Price 50c. Sold by St. Bernard Mining Co., Incorporated, Drug Department.

Wife's Ashes as an Ornament.
An ingenious method of disposing of the ashes of a cremated body has to be recorded. After a woman had been cremated the husband took the ashes to a chemist for the purpose of extracting the iron, which he is now wearing set in his ring, as one would wear a diamond.

A Gentle and Effective Laxative

A mild, gentle and effective laxative is what people demand when suffering from constipation. Thousands swear by Dr. King's New Life Pills. Hugh Tallman, of San Antonio, Tex., writes: "They are, beyond question, the best pills my wife and I have ever taken." They never cause pain. Price 25c at druggists, or by mail, E. E. Becklin & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis.

Birds Voracious Feeders.

As instances of the amount of food some birds consume, the Rev. C. T. Phillips, vicar of Irevill, a well-known Cumberland naturalist, the other day found in the crop of a wood-pigeon he shot 140 beech nuts, whilst another wood-pigeon had devoured more finely-chopped turnip leaves than he could hold in the palm of his hand.

ANNOUNCEMENT

We are authorized to announce Judge J. W. Henson as a candidate for Congress from the Second district, subject to the action of the democratic party.

Remember "Nollie"

Our own esteemed fellow citizen, Nollie Unstead, appears on the republican ballot as the nominee for Representative. "Nol-lie" is immensely liked and has many warm friends among the people of Earlington and this section of the county where he is well known, and he will certainly get a splendid and very complimentary vote hereabouts,
if, in the excitement of the various campaigns, his friends do not forget, and, of course, there has been little or no campaigning done in the interest of county republican candidates, for the reason that in the circumstances there is no hope for any of these to win. For this particular reason The Bee wishes to call attention to the fact that Nollie is a candidate, so that his friends
may be reminded.

Don't forget to vote for "Nol-
lie."

Amend The Tax Law

Vote next Tuesday for the amendment of Kentucky's antiquated tax law, which has repeatedly been proven to be a failure by every report of the Tax Commission. To do this vote
YES on Constitutional Amendment No 2 on the general ballot.
The present law does not produce the necessary revenue. It drives people and money away
from the State and prevents others from coming in. It falls heaviest on the owners of farms and land and town property and other tangible property, and owners of bonds, notes, stocks, and like investments are able to escape taxation in a large measure.

The amendment has been endorsed by all parties and is not a political question
Vote YES.

Vote To Put The Convicts

On Our Public Roads

Constitutional Amendment
No. 1, which appears on the general ballot to be voted next Tuesday proposes to put Kentucky's convict labor at work on the public roads of the State and so to take convict labor out of competition with free labor in all lines of trade. There does not seem to be any real argument against making our roads with convict labor, providing the system of handling this labor shall be proper and humane. The Bee has for many years favored and advocated this as the best possible use to which convict labor could be put. This is now being done in many states and is proving to be for the general good. Let's have a good, strong vote in Ear-lington and Hopkins County in favor of this measure.

Our Next County Surveyor

He is to be an Earlington man and no county in this or any other State will have a more competent or better equipped man for such a place. R. R.
Wipfler, who is the only candidate for County Surveyor on the entire ballot. His name appears under the Progressive device and should be found and voted for by every voter in Earlington, as a tribute to the professional skill and personal worth of this gentleman, who is a skilled surveyor and civil engineer of wide experience. Mr. Wipfler has had many years of active and varied experience in his profession, several years of his life having been devoted to important topographic work in the West. It is unusual to have a man in the office of County Surveyor with such experience and ability and these facts should be emphasized

in a hearty and generous vote
for Mr. Wipfler.

A WARNING TO THE VOTERS

By J. O. Fox, Progressive Party Nominee For County Judge.

Advertisement

On October 21st, I wrote a letter and published it in this paper asking Mr. Will T. Mills, certain questions, the answers to which certainly must have been within his knowledge, and they were questions in which the tax payers of Hopkins County were vitally interested, as truthful answers to said questions, would show to a certain extent Mr.
Mills' fitness for the office of County Judge. I also made him a proposition to go with me before the Fiscal Court on the 24th day of this month and make request of the Court to fix the salary of said office at $1000.00 per year, instead of $1200.00, in order to save money to the taxpayers. He has made no reply to said questions, and as he has not done so, the voters have a right to assume that the answers to said questions would have been against him and perhaps incriminating. I take it that it is either that, or that he is satisfied that the voters already know what the truthful, answers to said questions would have been,
as Dr. Vickers, E. D. Morrow, R. B. Bradley and Rufe Teague explained to the voters the acts and attitude of Mr. Mills while County Court Clerk and called his hand on many of them and has thoroughly explained to the voters just what he has done and where he stands. This is Democratic evidence, and any way,
the best evidence as to what he will do if elected, is by what he has done, "By their fruits ye shall know them."

In compliance with my promise
made to Mr. Mills, in said letter, I did go before the fiscal Court at the time stated, and make the request, as a taxpayer, that the salary of County Judge be fixed at $1000.00, per year, instead of the present salary of $1200.00.
Mr. Mills was there but refused to make any suggestions or request of that body and got up and left the room while this matter was under discussion and being passed upon. The Court refused to consider the request made, but treated the matter as a joke, one member remarking that he did not know which would be elected, Mr. Fox, or Mr. Mills, but if Mr. Fox was elected and did not want the $1200.00, he could give it to some poor widow. What do you think of a magistrate, elected to represent the people and whose duty it is to protect their interests, giving such an answer to so vital a question? The very thing I was trying to do was to save to the widows and poor taxpayers of the County, money that they should not uselessly pay out.

How many farmers and laboring people of this County make $1000.00, a year, and many of them with large families to support? It is a shame to take the money of the taxpayers and pay
it out uselessly.

Mr. Mills has had two issues of this paper in which to answer the questions I ask him, since I published those questions, and has failed to do so. This will be the last issue of this paper before election day and, in all probability, he will endeavor to offer some kind of explanation in this issue, which will be too late for me to reply and show the untruthfulness of any such answers, or dodgers, as he may make and I warn the voters now that what he shall say will not bear the searchlight of truth or he would have answered them like a man in time for my reply and I think the voters are too sensible to be deluded by such tactics, especially with the undisputed evidence given you by his opponents in the primary, still ringing in your ears.

He has not seen fit to ask me
any questions, although I stated to him that I was ready and willing to answer any questions
he desired to ask, and you have a right to assume that as he has none, he could ask that would have done him any good to have me answer.

I again appeal to the voters,
irrespective of party affiliation to vote for me for the office of County Judge and again assure you that if I am elected I will endeavor to do my full duty and will run your County government at the very lowest possible expense to you and see that your money is not squandered and will endeavor, before the close of my term, to have your tax rate decreased. I am not a perpetual office seeker and am now past
the meridian of life and have no future political aspirations and will go into the office with only the desire to do my full duty and expect to have the people as my advisers at all times in matters pertaining to their interest and will accord every man a square deal, regardless of who he is, or his political affiliation. There will be no pets.

Yours sincerely,
J. H. Fox.

Fall Care of Roads

II.—Work on Earth Roads of All Kinds—Importance of Proper Drainage.

At the beginning of the year 1913 90 per cent, or approximately 2,000,000 miles, of the roads in this country were earth. The repair and proper maintenance of earth roads are therefore of great importance.

The repair of an earth road has for its object the development of a crowned traveled way, dry and firm under travel and of proper width. It is desirable that this traveled way be reasonably straight and not too steep. It is known that it is first necessary to protect the roadway from water, and therefore repair operations begin with drainage. Pure sand roads are an exception to this principle.

Drainage intercepts water which would otherwise reach the road and removes water which accumulates on the road. A broad, shallow ditch on each side of the traveled way is required for drainage. Such ditches must have ample outlets into natural section with high shoulders (that part of the road between the wheel tracks and the inside edge of the gutter) the road machine is used to remove the shoulders, renew the gutter and crown the traveled way. To carry out this work correctly the entire width between gutters must be scraped and no sod or other organic matter or worn-out top dirt or other dead material be put back permanently into the traveled way. There are two methods of procedure. Under the first method the road grader may scrape all the objectionable material with a light cut, even at the expense of some live subsoil. Into long piles or windrows, which must be carted away to widen the slopes of fills or to supply the bottom layer for a new fill, or, at the worst, it may be piled up outside the gutters.

Under the second method no account is taken of the presence of sod or organic matter in operating the grader, and the refuse is raked out or gathered drainage channels, and all culverts to carry water across the road should be kept free from obstructions. When the road soil is clay the side ditches should be deepened and the traveled way somewhat raised to increase the protection against water.

Defective Drainage.

Outlets for gutters are needed at every low point and should be large enough to carry off the worst flood water quickly. To do this outlets need to be built with a large factor of safety. In deep cuts and on hillside roads it is frequently necessary to dig a bank ditch above the road on the shoulder of the slope in order to intercept surface water from the hillside. Such ditches should discharge water into natural channels entirely away from the road.

That many country roads are never in repair is frequently due to defective drainage of the surface because of the development of continuous obstruction on the shoulder or quarter of the roadway. This obstruction may be due to a gradual lowering of the wheel tracks on the center of the traveled way; the presence of a footpath, which is avoided in repair operations, or, more frequently, to the presence of sod and often to all of these causes.

It is customary in many localities to remedy the above defects and repair earth roads from time to time with a road machine or road grader. These machines vary in size and require from two to eight horses to operate them. The blade of the road grader is designed to cut out and move a moderate quantity of earth in a direction at right angles to the road axis. The point of the blade should leave a clean, smooth cut. The earth is deposited past the heel of the blade, and the blade may be raised at the heel to sink the point. The earth will then pass under the heel of the blade. This action tends to break clods and puddle the material. It is well to begin operations with a road scraper just outside the wheel track and to work toward the gutters instead of beginning at the gutters and moving a constantly increasing mass of earth. In this way the blade always cuts new material, which moves freely toward the center.

When a road has developed a bad

ed with forks and removed in carts or sometimes thrown outside the gutter.

The road supervisor realizes often that he has not money enough to remove a broad strip of weeds and sod and contents himself with removing a narrow strip next to the wheel tracks. A so called "secondary gutter," which is not true to grade and which has no outlet, is thus developed. The road is gradually narrowed, and the surface cannot escape into the original gutter. Nevertheless when a road has an excessive width between gutters and must be repaired there should be no hesitation in forming entirely new gutters. The road must, in fact, be given a new section, and the section must be of uniform width, with even grades and outlets for the new gutters at all low points and at intermediate points on hills.

Sometimes when a road of proper alignment and width between gutters is out of shape, with high shoulders and refuse along the gutters, it is good practice to scrape off the worn-out material, rotten leaves, etc., by using the blade set first toward the gutter. After the road surface is clean and the refuse has been carted away it will be found that fewer trips have been needed and frequently that the road section is completely restored without disturbing the center. If, however, the center is still low good, live material may be scraped toward the center from the shoulders. Care must always be taken to lower the shoulders sufficiently to form a perfect crown instead of removing an excess of material from the gutter.

Seldom can an earth road be brought to a true section and given a firm traveled way without the addition of surface material at various places. This added material varies in amount from large patches to an application several hundred feet in length. Almost always there is on the line of a road or near the road some one best source of material, and that material should be used whenever considerable new earth is required.

Hollows should be filled with the same material that is in the road. The old dust or mud should be first cleaned out, and great care must be taken to avoid the formation of a hard raised lump in the road, which will later develop two new hollows at the ends.

The ultimate object of earth road repair and improvement should include, on roads of the first class, the establishment of such lines, grades, drainage and section that these roads may in the future be given a hard surface and may advance into the class of modern improved roads for the least investment of public funds. In a similar way roads of lower types should be so treated that their condition improves and that their advance into the next higher type is assured with the least expense.

The Road Drag.

The split log drag or some of its modifications has proved beyond doubt the best tool for earth road maintenance. It is sometimes called the road hone. This drag may be made with either two split halves of logs from six to eight feet long and six to eight inches thick, shod with iron, or with planks from three to four inches thick, shod with iron, or sometimes by splitting a railroad tie with a saw. It is drawn by two horses and is designed to run at an angle to the axis of the road. The object of the drag is to move a small quantity of earth and also to puddle the surface. The two half logs are set parallel about three feet apart with the smooth sides facing forward. They may be connected with any desired system of braces about six inches from the ground, but the drag should be rigid, and that is best secured by having two diagonal braces.

AS EARTH ROADS SHOULD BE.

The first dragging may not produce much apparent benefit, and the operation requires patience and persistence. The road should be dragged the entire length of the section, which should be such as can be finished in one day. Where the travel after dragging tends to form two tracks with a center ridge of loose earth the drag should be run directly in the center, or a slicker or clod smasher may be used to reduce the ridge. One immediate result which is beneficial will be the distribution of

EDITORIAL

The protest against issuance of liquor license in Hopkins county, particularly those asked for Oak Hill and Mannington, have been most earnest and general throughout the Southern part of the County, including Earlington where the temperance people were among the first to act. The situation looks good and the Bee predicts victory for temperance and the home and the children.

A LOVELY FACE---

BUT UGLY HAIR

How often you see an otherwise lovely face spoiled by homely hair—a face that would be most charmingly beautiful if she only had prettier hair. What a pity—and how foolish! Because that ugly hair, stringy, dull lifeless-looking though it may be, can be made as glossy, soft, silky and beautiful as the hair could desire if only taken proper care of.

Harmony Hair Beautifier is just what it is named—a hair beautifier. It is not a hair-dye or hair oil—it is just a dandy, rose-perfumed liquid dressing to give the hair its natural gloss and brightness, its natural wavy softness, its natural rich beauty. Very easy to apply—simply sprinkle a little on your hair each time before brushing it. It contains no oil, and will not change the color of the hair, nor darken gray hair. To keep your hair and scalp dandruff-free and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This pure liquid shampoo gives an instantaneous rich lather that immediately penetrates to every part of hair and scalp, insuring a quick and thorough cleansing. Washed of just as quickly, the entire operation takes only of few moments. Contains nothing that can harm the hair; leaves no harshness or stickiness—just a sweet smelling cleanliness.

Both preparations come in odd-shaped, very ornamental bottles, with sprinkler tops. Harmony Hair Beautifier, $1.00. Harmony Shampoo, 50c. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way, or your money back. Sold in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store—one of the more than 7,000 leading drug stores of the United States, Canada and Great Britain, which own the big Harmony laboratories in Boston, where the many celebrated Harmony Perfumes and Toilet Preparations are made.

St. Bernard Mfg. Co., Incorporated, Drug Department.

Today, Today is your day and mine, the only day we have, the day in which we play our part. What our part may signify in the great whole, we may not understand; but this we know—it is a part of action, not of whining; of love, not of cynicism. It is for us to express love in terms of human helpfulness.—David Starr Jordan.

THROW OUT THE LINE

Give the Kidneys Help and Many Earlington People Will be Happier

"Throw out the Life Line"—Weak Kidneys need help. They're often overworked—don't get the poison filtered out of the blood.

Will you help them? Doan's Kidney Pills have brought benefit to thousands of kidney sufferers.

Read this Princeton case. Mrs. E. Keeling, Hopkinsville, Road, Princeton, Ky., says: "Some years ago I was laid up in bed by an acute attack of kidney trouble. I had severe pains in my back and shoulders and rheumatic twinges through my whole body. I was nervous and my sight was affected. I tried many remedies but none gave me any relief until a friend advised me to use Doan's Kidney Pills. They were the only remedy that gave me any relief whatsoever."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents of the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Cause of Fall of Bullet.
The resistance of the air and the attraction of gravitation cause a bullet or cannonball to end its flight and fall to the earth; these two forces operating together cause the projectile to describe a curve dependent on its initial velocity. The greater the speed at the beginning the farther it will go.

 "How did you manage to keep a cook in the country, Mrs. Welloff?"
 "By making the house over to her and moving back to the city."

Some Good May Be Done.
I told something to a friend once and he replied, "Gee do you want a fellow to be perfect?" I said, "Yes, but I never expect to see one, but there's lots of rottenness which can be cut out of the efforts of all of us."
—Exchange.

Jinks—He's a regular cabbage head, isn't he? Winks—Oh, no; a cabbage head is worth 10 cents, and he isn't.

An Expert.

"Weren't you surprised that the customs inspector didn't find those things you smuggled in?"
"Oh, no; my wife stowed them away. She can pack things in a trunk where she can't even find them herself."

A Plea of Guilty.

The Accused—Why, your honor, I raised them chickens myself.
His Honor—Just so. The complaint says you lifted them. I see no conflict in the evidence.—New York Globe.

Good Excuse.

His Ma—Willie, why didn't you study the names of the oceans?
Willie—Ma, you know how easily I get seasick.

Obedient Orders.

Aunt—Willie, why didn't you wash your face this morning?
Willie—The doctor said to be careful and not get my feet wet, and I guess my face is just as good as my feet.

Wrong Diagnosis.

"So you're going to marry again? I thought you said your heart was broken!"
"I guess it was just sprained."

The Bug—Whither goest thou, brother? The Cricket—Well, you've heard of the cricket on the hearth? There ain't no more hearths around here, so I've got to emigrate.

One of Them.

Willie—Pa, what are the cruelties of barbarism? Pa—Having the barber cut you and then charge you a dime for sticking plaster.—Chicago News.

Couldn't Afford Luxuries.

"They were to operate on me for appendicitis." "Why didn't they?" "I failed in business."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Or the "Pill Chasers."

"We are going to have a ball," said the clerk. "What do you call it—the quinine?"

Umm.

If golfers' knickerbockers become much more voluminous we would suggest that they should be put to such a use as to merit the name of golf bags.—Punch.

Carrying Out His Principles.

Mr. Grasseater—No meat for me. I never eat anything that costs the life of a living creature. This boiled potato will do.

Mr. Meatfed—Very well, but let me warn you that the production of that potato has cost the lives of thousands of potato bugs.

Improving Coffee Flavor.

Adding a pinch of salt and piece of butter, size of a bean, to coffee will make the flavor much better and also settle the coffee.

Vote YES on Constitutional Amendment No. 1, next Tuesday. It will put Convict Labor on the Public Roads.

Jap Baker's Sign.

The oriental capacity for using our mother tongue with strange twists of unconscious humor is well known, but few examples are equal to this delicious sign on a Japanese baker's shop: "A Karimura, Biggest Loaf in Tokyo."—Oriental Review.

Snubbed "Iron Duke."

The Duke of Wellington, who had a taste for anything that Napoleon
had liked, applied to David the artist,
who had painted Napoleon's portrait, requesting David to execute one of himself. "Sir," replied David, "I paint
only historical characters."

Crossing the Bridge.

The trouble about crossing the bridge before you come to it is that you will have to cross it just the same when you get there.

Air Purified.

The air of a cellar or any dark store room can be kept sweet by hanging lumps of charcoal in net bags. Every few weeks the charcoal should be taken out, made very hot and returned to the bags.

Simple Headache Remedy.

A nervous headache may frequently be cured by several slices of lemon in a cup of strong tea and a billious headache is almost invariably put to rout
by a tablespoonful of lemon juice in a cup of black coffee.

Error of Intellect.

Through the ordinary course of mortal failure and misfortune, in the career of nations no less than of men,
the error of their intellect and the hardening of their hearts may be accurately measured by their denial of spiritual power.—Ruskin.

"Logging Engineering."

A case of "logging engineering" has been heard of, but out in Washington
the lumbermen insist that they need it in the state university in their business. There are possibly in some eastern colleges professorships more impressively titled that are not of as much practical value.

Whitelaw Reid to Newspaper Men.

Whitelaw Reid, in a speech some years ago at a literary dinner, delivered himself of a maxim which he suggested should be hung up in every newspaper office in the world. It was: "Fewer words, shorter stories, better told." And all the newspaper men present raised a cheer.

Push Cart Fortune.

The proprietor of the finest cafe in Los Angeles formerly sold "hot tamales" from a push cart, and although he is now wealthy, he still preserves this old vehicle. In erecting a business block to house his modern restaurant he built a cupola just large enough to contain the old tamale cart, and it may be plainly seen from the street.

Vote YES on Constitutional Amendment No. 1, next Tuesday. It will put Convict Labor on the Public Roads.

Just Before the Fight.

"So you are on your way to propose to Miss Mickelle?" "You bet! Wish me luck?" "Oh, I wish you luck, all right; but it won't do you a bit of good; I feel sure she is going to accept you."—Houston Post.

Until the Plumber Arrives.

While waiting for the arrival of a plumber, when the water pipes have sprung a leak, the housewife may do a little repairing herself. The water should be turned off and a solder made by mixing some whiting with common yellow soap and just enough water to form a thick paste. Apply this mixture to the leak and in a little while the water may be turned on very slowly. This solder may last a day or longer.

Definition.

"What is a vegetarian?" asked little Tommy of his cynical uncle, who replied: "A vegetarian, my boy, is a man who has forgotten that all flesh
is as grass."—New York Evening Post.

Now We Know.

Son—"Why do people say 'Dame Gossip'?" Father—"Because they are too polite to leave off the 'e.'"—Le Crabbe.

Things Worth While.

The things that are really worth while are not the goals of a struggle for existence, but those which can be partaken of by every one and not be exhausted.—Dr. John Grier Hibben.
